TROUBLE.

SURRENDER GUILTY ONES

Men Implicated in Massacre of Batangas Must Be Turned Over Before Nov. 6—Otherwise They Will Be Sent to Guam, the Villages Destroyed and Their Property Confiscated—Naval Cadet Noa Bolado.

Manila, Oct. 28.—Dispatches from Catbalogan, Samar, say that stringent and energetic measures are being taken to suppress the insurrection in that island. General Smith has notified all the presidentes and head men of the pueblos that in order to avoid trouble they must surrender all arms and turn over the men implicated in the Batangas massacre before Nov. 6, threatening that otherwise the presidentes will be sent to the island of Guam, the villages destroyed and their property confiscated.

The marines under Major Littleton W. T. Waller have been stationed at Batangas and Basy and 10 gunboats are vigorously patrolling the southern coast.

Several villages of head men have been destroyed.

Naval Cadet Loveman Noa, commanding the gunboat Mariveles, who had gone ashore at Nara Nipa, South Samar, to prevent smuggling, was attacked by insurgents. He lost his revolver and was shot and boleroed.

Lieutenant Louis J. Van Schack reports that in an attack by insurgents on the municipal police and scouts at Sabing one scout was killed and two of the police were captured. The insurgents secured two Krag-Jorgensen rifles, two shotguns and 200 rounds of ammunition. Lieutenant Van Schack has been ordered to occupy the barrio or suburb of Sabing.

The constabulary report a fight with insurgents near Passi, province of Iloilo, island of Panay, in which 25 insurgents were killed and 3 captured, together with a quantity of arms and ammunition.

Insurgents Are Coming In.

garding conditions in the island of Cebu is encouraging. Lorega has surrendered with his entire force and one cannon and seven rifles, while General Hughes is negotiating for the surrender of Maxilto, who styles himself "governor politico-militar." His surrender will mean the pacification of the province.

Lack of food and the harassing effects of the aggressive tactics now pursued by the American forces are having their influence upon the natives. In many places where rice is doled out by the government only enough is given for one meal, so that it is hardly possible for any large quantity to find its way to the insurgents.

It is believed that the recent manifestations in the island of Samar were chiefly due to the lack of food, the insurgents finding it necessary to make outlets to the coast in order to obtain this.

The first labor problem growing out of the new tariff has arisen. A hat and umbrella factory employing 500 hands has found it necessary to close. The lawyers made a protest to the commission urging protection as the same goods from Germany can be sold at half the price it takes to manufacture them here.

IS RECKONED BY HOURS

TIME WHICH ASSASSIN CZOLGOSZ HAS TO LIVE IS VERY SHORT.

TO AVOID SENSATIONALISM

Prison Authorities Will Try to Deprive the Murderer of Any Notoriety Either Living or Dead—Body Will Be Buried in Quicklime and Papers Burned—The Fifty-ninth Man to Sit in the Chair in the State.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 28.—The time which Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, has to live is reckoned by hours now, but there has been no relaxation of the stringent rule under which the prisoner has been secluded since his confinement. Auburn prison was closed during the day to any who sought the assassin and so it will remain until the prisoner has paid the penalty which the law exacts. In fact the plan to deprive Czolgosz living of any notoriety has been extended to deprive Czolgosz dead of notoriety. Immediately after the execution the clothing of the murderer, with the vast accumulation of mail that came to the prison for him, will be burned, and, if possible, the request of the parents of the dead man for his remains will be evaded. It is feared that the removal of his body to Cleveland would lead to scenes of an unfortunate nature and the prison officials are anxious to avoid anything of the kind. The plan of burning the clothing and letters of the murderer will prevent the exhibition of relics by those who pander to the morbid.

The chair in which Czolgosz will sit to receive the deadly electrical shock was examined and tested during the day by State Electrician E. F. Davis and is ready for the part that it is to play in the final scene of the great national tragedy.

Davis carefully examined the wiring and satisfied himself that it was in good condition. He also inspected the dynamo in the prison shop where the current is generated and at his direction the current was for a brief period sent as it will go carrying final punishment to the murderer. Czolgosz will be the 59th man in the state and the 15th at Auburn prison at whose electrocution Davis has applied the current.

The firm purpose of Superintendent Collins and Warden Mead is to avoid even the appearance of sensationalism. It is said that an unappealed law has been found that will allow the warden to refuse any unauthorized appeal for the assassin's remains even from his relatives and will give him the privilege of disposing of it. In that event within two hours after the execution Czolgosz' body, clothes, letters and everything reminiscent of him in the prison will be disposed of; the body of the assassin will be buried in quicklime and the clothes, letters and packages will be consumed by fire. And this is not all. Warden Mead, with Superintendent Collins' approval, has decided that until the execution of Czolgosz not one word of his condition or actions shall be given out from the prison.

It is possible not one of the Polish priests will visit Czolgosz, but there is some question about the final reconciliation of the prisoner with the church in which he was baptized. He maintains the stolidity and indifference which have marked his conduct since his arrest.

OFFICIALS ARE HOPEFUL.

Believe They Will Ultimately Secure Miss Stone's Release.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The state department officials had no news to give out regarding Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary now in the hands of the Bulgarian brigands. They are continuing unceasingly in their efforts to obtain her release and again messages were sent to Consul General Dickinson, now at Sofia, and to Spencer Eddy, the charge at Constantinople, urging immediate efforts for the establishment of communication between the missionaries and the captors of Miss Stone. The officials continue hopeful of ultimately securing her release.

Constantinople, Oct. 28.—During the last few days there has been a voluminous exchange of dispatches in cipher between Spencer Eddy, secretary of the United States legation, and Consul General Dickinson, who is now in Sofia, regarding the efforts to rescue Miss Stone, the abducted American missionary, from the brigands. The legation is reticent and nothing has been made public as to the progress of the negotiations.

President's Forty-third Birthday.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Sunday was the 43d anniversary of the birth of President Roosevelt. Occurring on the Sabbath there was no formal celebration and the day was spent very quietly. Dr. Nichols, a friend from Baltimore, was at the White House a portion of the day and Commander Cowles was a guest at dinner. The president attended religious services at Grace Reformed church as usual.

ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE.

Report of Cabinet Officers Will Not Be Included.

Washington, Oct. 28.—All members were present at the meeting of the cabinet. The consultation between the president and his cabinet officers was especially full owing to the decision which Mr. Roosevelt has reached to write all of his own messages to congress and to do it on original lines. Heretofore the secretary of state has written that portion covering foreign relations, and every other cabinet officer has contributed a chapter on his respective department. The president has determined to do away with this detailed statement of the affairs of each department. He will devote his message to such topics as he chooses to lay particularly before the attention of congress, leaving the reports of the cabinet officers to acquaint congress with the details of administration.

TWENTY BODIES FOUND.

Victims of the Philadelphia Fire Will Number Thirty.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—Another body has been recovered from the ruins of Hunt, Wilkinson & Co.'s building, making the number of dead 20. There are still 11 missing and it is generally believed that the bodies of these are buried under the debris. The body recovered during the morning was that of a man, but was so badly charred as to be unrecognizable. It was taken from the pile of bricks and stones which had been the rear wall of the building and which fell into Commerce street, burying many of the unfortunates who had leaped from the windows. A force of men was at work all through the night, but very little impression was made on the tons of debris and it will be some days before the number of fatalities can be definitely determined.

FIRE STARTED BY HUNTERS.

Portions of Pennsylvania and West Virginia Being Devastated.

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 28.—The western slope of the Allegheny mountains through Fayette county are ablaze from the Yough river through into West Virginia and mountaineers are fleeing from their doomed homes with their families. Careless hunters started a dozen fires during the past week and the brush is as dry as tinder. Streams that were never before known to go dry have dried up and the fire is steadily spreading destruction. The fire has been spreading for a week and the glare at night can be seen for miles. The destruction has been enormous to crops, fences, barns, stock and dwellings, with many narrow escapes from cremation in homes that were surrounded by the flames.

RELIEF ONLY TEMPORARY.

King Edward Has Undergone Three Operations Since His Accession.

London, Oct. 28.—Reynolds' Weekly Newspaper is the first British paper to assert that King Edward is suffering from cancer of the throat. In Sunday's issue it declares that since his majesty's accession three operations have been performed for the removal of papilloma on the left vocal chord and that one was removed from the right vocal chord last week.

"Assistance was hastily summoned," says this journal, "as his majesty was breathing with difficulty and an immediate operation was performed, but it was only regarded as a temporary relief, the injured epiglottis now having become a cancerous growth and serious developments are expected."

DESIGNS ON AFGHANISTAN.

Recent Russian Movements Are Very Significant.

New York, Oct. 28.—The Simla correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, says that General Kouropatkin, the Russian minister of war, recently made a tour on the Afghan frontier, visiting the outposts, before proceeding to Russian Turkestan to witness the beginning of work on the Tashkent-Ornburg railway.

The Russians some months ago began the extension of the new railroad toward Herat. At the same time they began the construction of a branch line toward Maruchak (Northern Afghanistan) which is evidently intended for strategic purposes.

GOT ONLY FIFTY CENTS.

A Boy's Murderer Confesses His Crime at Montreal.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—"I killed a boy during the night," said Tobin Hanson, a Dane, 35 years of age, to the officer in charge when he walked into Central police station. "I killed him for money and I only got 50 cents. That is not enough, so I came to give myself up."

Hanson described the locality in which the deed had been committed and the police found the boy's body. It was identified as Samuel Marotto, a son of Samuel Marotto, a well known spice and coffee merchant.

Cuba's Revenue Falling Off.

Washington, Oct. 28.—A comparative statement issued by the division of insular affairs of the war department shows that the total receipts from customs sources in Cuba for the first nine months of 1901 were $11,584,827, for the same period of 1900 $11,828,742, and for 1899 $10,797,407.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—According to a dispatch to The Novoe Vremya from Vladivostok the Russian General Grodekoff, accompanied by the Russian assistant minister of finance, M. Romanoff, will soon open the Manchurian-Siberian railway.

POWERS AGAIN CONVICTED.

Kentucky's Former Secretary of State Given a Life Sentence.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 28.—Ex Secretary of State Caleb Powers has again been convicted as accessory before the fact to the murder of William Goebel in January, 1900, and was for the second time sentenced to imprisonment for life.

The second trial began Oct. 8. Arguments were limited so that the case went to the jury at 2 p. m. and a verdict of guilty soon followed.

Powers sat pale and motionless when the verdict was announced by the foreman, B. S. Calvert, his old schoolmate. Opposite Powers, on the other side of the courtroom with the attorneys, sat Arthur Goebel, brother of the late senator and governor, with his eyes fixed on the prisoner. The attorneys of Powers shook his hand and expressed aloud their belief in his innocence. Women crowded around Powers and embraced and kissed him and tears were shed.

A motion for a new trial was overruled and the case will be appealed. The sentence was read and judgment suspended pending the decision of the higher tribunal. Powers was taken to Frankfort on an evening train and committed to jail without bail.

A CHINESE REVOLUTION.

Bishop Graves Predicts the Overthrow of the Present Government.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Regeneration of the Chinese people and the overthrow of the Chinese government were predicted by Rt. Rev. F. R. Graves, missionary bishop of Shanghai, in a sermon at Grace Episcopal church. According to the prelate the recent outbreaks in China are but signs of a coming revolution. The Chinese people, he said, were becoming eager for reform and the new generation would revolt in order to learn of the customs and habits of other people.

MAY BE BUILT IN AMERICA.

Vessels of the Proposed Fast Atlantic Line.

New York, Oct. 28.—O'Brien Croker, manager of the Cork and South Coast of Ireland railway, has forwarded to the Cork Press a letter containing additional information in reference to the proposed fast steamship service across the Atlantic, says The Tribune's London representative. There will be a biweekly service from Naragansett bay, direct to Beersheva, Cork. It is intended to build six fast boats. If the English government will subsidize for carriage of mails, the vessels will be built in England and carry the English flag; if not they will be built in America and carry the American flag.

MAY BE FATAL TO BOTH.

Thirteen-Months-Old Baby at Pittsburgh Burns His Mother and Himself.

Pittsburg, Oct. 28.—Thirteen-months-old Robbie Busker at his home, 40 Arch street, Allegheny, pulled a lighted lamp from a table and was so badly burned that he can live but a few hours. His mother, Mary Busker, in her efforts to save the baby, was seriously burned about the head and breast. Her recovery is doubtful. Three neighbors, Peter Grimes, Patrick McDermott and James McGovern, were all painfully burned about the face and hands while extinguishing the flames which enveloped the mother and child and threatened the destruction of the house.

Not Allowed to Fight Duels.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—Former Lieutenant Maximoff of the Russian guards has been cited to appear before the civil courts to answer for his participation in the duel last summer at Wittgenstein with Prince Alexander Sayn-Wittgenstein-Berleburg, which resulted fatally for the prince. Ex-officers of the Russian army are not permitted to engage in duels and cannot plead privilege.

Mrs. Louis LaJoie left this afternoon for Chicago where she expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. W. S. Benjamin returned this afternoon from Minneapolis where she has been visiting for about a week.

Chas. Mallory and Joseph Hines, two moulders working for Parker & Topping, have gone to the Twin cities.

Miss Ada Clark arrived in the city this afternoon from Minneapolis and she will be the guest of Miss Maud Davis for some time.

Attorney C. A. Allbright and Walter Delemere returned this morning from the Milaca country where they have enjoyed a few days' hunt.

Mrs. Martin Lasso returned to her home at St. Joseph this afternoon after a pleasant visit in the city with her daughter Mrs. J. W. Koop.

Owing to the death of P. M. Lagerquist the party to be given by the union clerks tomorrow has been postponed until a week from tomorrow night.

James Nielson, Bob Georgeson, Gil Chadbourne and Al. Bell were out to Hubert lake yesterday hunting. They brought down some part-ridges but state that it was too warm for ducks.

W. A. Laidlow, secretary of the Northern Pacific Beneficial Association, arrived in the city this noon and he and Dr. Courtney and General Manager Gemmell, of the M. & I., left for Backus, where will hunt for a day's staying at Mr. Ferris' club house.

A. P. Shanks, who has been working for Louis LaJoie, has bought out William Olson, of Seventh street, and will take charge of the shop tomorrow morning. Mr. Olson's health has failed him and he has been compelled to seek other climates. He will leave for Wisconsin tomorrow.

Mrs. Lawrence McPherson and Mrs. J. C. Congdon, will entertain the W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon. A business session will be held at 3 o'clock, after which a social hour will be enjoyed. Report of the state convention recently held will be given by Mrs. Clulow, and other important business transacted. Supper will be served for 15c. All are cordially invited.

Yesterday R. D. King and Pete Wolvert went out to Mud lake for a hunt. R. D. King, of course prides himself with being a great shot and he went out all girdled and yesterday morning it looked bad in duck-duck. The boys were having pretty poor luck but finally Mr. King, lynx-eyed, spied some ducks out on the water and they thought they had better creep up on them and all fire at once and get a good pot. They crawled on their hands and knees for about three hundred yards and when they got within range R. D. suggested that they count three and everybody fire. Wolvert did the counting and when three was counted bang went the guns and imagine the dismay, when they discovered they had fired into a number of decoys. Wolvert reloaded his gun and thought he would catch some of the ducks on the wing.

ENGINEER HALLETT HURT

While The Tender of His Engine was Being Loaded with Coal a Large Chunk Hit Him.

This morning Engineer J. H. Hallett sustained quite a severe scalp wound while the tender to his engine on the passenger of the Minnesota & International was being loaded with coal north of the city. He had descended from his engine and was doing some work underneath where the coal was being loaded. Quite a large chunk fell, hitting him on top of the head and for a few minutes he was dazed.

The fireman had to run the engine to the city, and on arriving here Mr. Hallett was removed at once to his home and Dr. Camp called. While the wound is quite bad it is not at all serious.

MAUGHN-DEAN.

Well Known Young Man will Lead Miss Ann Dean to the Altar Next Wednesday Afternoon.

Miss Minnie Small left this afternoon for Northfield where she will attend the wedding ceremony of Mr. Herbert Maughn to Miss Ann Dean, which occurs at that place Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Maughn was at one time a resident of this city and is very well known here. The wedding is to be a swell affair.

STOCK MARKET WAR.

Moore Brothers and the Steel Corporation at Loggerheads.

New York, Oct. 28.—Reports are current in Wall street of a serious disagreement between the United States Steel corporation and the Moore Bros., who were conspicuous at the time of the formation of the company, and a stock market war between the two interests was predicted.

The trouble is said to have arisen over the attempt of the Moore Bros. to sell the American Can corporation, "the dinner pail trust," to the United States Steel corporation. After long negotiations it is said the steel corporation declined to take over the American Can company at the valuation placed upon it by the Moores. Now the Moore Bros. threaten to form a new steel trust and to build the largest tin plate mill in the United States to fight that branch of the steel corporation's business.

AT THE ST. LOUIS FAIR.

Largest Building Ever Constructed Dedicated to Agriculture.

St. Louis, Oct. 28.—Agriculture, by which the great Louisiana purchase was developed, will receive the highest compliment which the world's fair at St. Louis can bestow. To this greatest of industries the greatest of all buildings ever constructed for any purpose will be dedicated. The building will be 2,000 feet long and 700 feet wide, containing an area of 1,400,000 square feet, or about 32 acres. Allowing two square feet for each person 700,000 people could stand under this roof. An army of 50,000 men could assemble and go through its evolutions with freedom within this space.

FOR A MEDAL OF HONOR.

Lieutenant Hazzard Recommended by General Chaffee.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Lieutenant R. T. Hazzard of the First cavalry, recently burglarized an insurgent camp in the Philippines and stole an American deserter. As punishment he has been recommended by General Chaffee for a medal of honor, according to a report received at the war department. Lieutenant Hazzard was one of the officers who accompanied Funston on the expedition that resulted in the capture of Aguinaldo.

In the present instance, Hazzard, with a few scouts, entered the insurgent camp at night and quietly captured a deserter named Howard.

Cyanide Plant Destroyed.

Deadwood, S. D., Oct. 28.—The large cyanide plant at Ragged Top, owned and operated by the Spearfish Mining company of Colorado Springs, Colo., was completely destroyed by fire during the morning. Loss $50,000. The fire started in the lower part of the building and there being no fire protection, it was soon a total wreck.

Set Fire to the Minnesota.

Eastport, Me., Oct. 28.—The torch has been applied to the old warship Minnesota, brought here a few months ago to be broken up for the metal in her hull, and the woodwork has been almost entirely consumed. It is said that the old Tennessee will be brought here later to meet a similar fate.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Twenty-three persons have been eaten by wolves while working in the fields near Witebsk, Poland.

It is officially announced in St. Petersburg that Russia and China have concluded an agreement as to Manchuria.

The Duchess of Manchester (who was Miss Helena Zimmerman of Cincinnati) was accouched of a daughter Sunday.

A. L. Lawton, a prominent politician, street car railway capitalist, and a 33d degree Mason of Colorado Springs, Colo., died at the Plankinton hotel, Milwaukee, Sunday.

Registration Is Very Heavy.

Cincinnati, Oct. 28.—The registration of voters in Ohio for the election one week from next Tuesday closed at 9 p. m. The total registration of Cincinnati was 76,402, the largest ever recorded except for the presidential election last year, when it reached 12,322.

Neighborhood Gossip.

There is a milk famine down at Owatonna.

Company K, of Stillwater, has organized two basket ball teams.

John Delongery, of Fosston, a lumber jack, has fallen heir to $15,000.

The First National Bank, of Hope, N. D., will erect a modern two-story brick building.

Rasmus Flore, who was a prominent business man of Osakis for years, died in Norway.

The Faribault and Martin counties dairymen's annual meeting will convene at Blue Earth Oct. 31.

Mrs. Henry Overman, an old settler of Rush City, died suddenly at the home of her daughter at that place.

Mr. Harry J. West, of St. Cloud, and Miss Pearl Holden, of Winona, were married at the latter place Saturday.

The Modern Brotherhood of America held its supreme convention at Sioux City, Ia., commencing last Monday.

G. T. Frost, a saw mill man of Deer River, has been arrested charged with having moose meat in his possession.

Editor Davidson, of the Perham Bulletin, is putting in a new cylinder press, new job presses and a gasoline engine.

Rev. G. W. Davis was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Mankato on Thursday evening last.

The annual state convention of the Minnesota Woman Suffrage Association was in session at Mankato the last of the week.

Two hundred and fifty thousand cords of stone were used from the Mankato quarries in Iowa through one contracting firm.

Nels Hanson, who more than five years ago broke his parole at the St. Cloud reformatory, was located at Trenton, N. J., and returned to the institution.

The annual district mission of the Swedish Lutheran church was held at Rush City on Monday and Tuesday of last week for Chisago, Kanabec, Isanti and Pine counties.

The keepers of infamous joints at Fargo, who were arrested at the instance of the Enforcement League, on the charge of selling beer, were discharged by Judge Hanson.

Taylor Falls held a special election on Monday to reincorporate under the general statutes of the state. The town has always existed under a special act of the legislature which went into effect July 15, 1858.

The county commissioners of Freeborn county are to be asked to expend from $15,000 to $20,000 in the drainage of Rice lake in that county, which has become nothing but a swamp, and of swamplands adjacent thereto.

J. K. Bennett went to St. Cloud on Thursday morning's train. He is secretary of the State Buttermaker's association and his visit at St. Cloud was made to perfect arrangements for the convention to be held there this winter.—Owatonna Journal.

The Soo is doing the square thing by the settlers along their line. They are not only furnishing free transportation for threshing machines to go to North Dakota to help care for the crops, but free transportation for crews and machines to return when the season closes.

The first official act of Director Alvah Eastman, of the state normal board, was the sending to the board of control the pay roll for the St. Cloud normal school. As it is made out in the form required by the board of control, and does not contain a requisition for the resident director's salary, it was audited by the board of control and vouchers were issued by the state auditor. The August account was $395, and September $2,777.—St. Cloud Times.

Milaca still boasts of its wild man. He was recently seen by W. H. Oakes, a citizen of Princeton, while driving from that town to Milaca. He got a good view of the fellow as he was crossing a field about 25 rods from the road. When he noticed Mr. Oakes he put for the brush. He was entirely naked and was dragging a black object which looked like some animal. Mr. Oakes is said to be a quiet, unassuming and truthful gentleman. We would like to ask the Milaca Times if Mr. Oakes was sober at the time.—Royaltan Banner.

LITTLE FALLS BOWLERS WIN

Over Brainerd by Over Four Hundred Points in the Games Saturday Night in This City.

Saturday night there was a very interesting bowling contest at the Jerome Kelleher alleys, between some players from this city and the regular team sent out by the Little Falls Bowling Club. No particular team had been picked out by Brainerd, but if there had been the final scores would have been different. As it was the boys did very well with the practice they have had.

The Little Falls boys are a gentlemanly lot and the games were very interesting, being the first played in this city. Four games were played which resulted in the following score:

It will be seen by the score that Dr. Frederick made the high score of the evening in the third game when he ran it up to 191 points.

TESTIMONY IN COFFIN CASE.

Maud Grant Shown to be a Prevaricator of the First Water--Evidence Had

No Weight.

The following is a gist of the testimony taken in the case of the state against W. A. Coffin at Red Wing, the jury after being out but five minutes returning a verdict of not guilty.

"Maud Grant was the state's first witness. She testified that Coffin is a constable at Deerwood, Crow Wing county, and on Sept. 7 last was bringing her to the training school at Red Wing. They arrived here at about 9 o'clock in the evening. They walked around several blocks, he asking several people whom he met where there was a good hotel, and finally wound up at the Hendel hotel. He registered and they were assigned different rooms, but adjoining each other. There was a door between the two rooms. He first locked her room and then his. After a while he came into her room and said he wanted to talk to her. She refused to talk and he returned to his own room. In a short time he came back and she again told him to go away. After a while he came into her room again. She had been reading her Bible and was just going to say her prayers. He put his arm around her and held her so that she could not move. She struggled and tried to scream but he put the sheets over her face and held so tightly that she could make no out cry. He remained in her room until morning. After breakfast they walked to the training school, arriving there about 9:30 o'clock. After setting down in one of the rooms in the school she fell asleep and later was removed to bed.

Next morning Mrs. Anna McDowell, the mother of Maud Grant, testified that she was the complaining witness in the trial which resulted in the girl being sent to the training school.

Supt. J. W. Brown testified as to the girl being received at the training school. Miss Edith Kassing, matron of family A at the school, gave similar testimony.

Miss Elizabeth Barseh, instructor of sewing at the school, testified that on Sunday morning Sept. 8, she was coming down the stairs in the girls' cottage. She could look over the transome and there saw a man and girl standing near the table as if embracing. The girl's hands were on his shoulders. She could not see where his hands were.

Alec. Hendel testified to assigning them separate rooms on the night of Sept. 7.

The state here rested. The defendant then called Rev. A. H. Carver, J. McCarvill, H. Patterson, Ida Rathbourn, Belle Whitten, C. J. Rathbourn and Walter A. Johnson. They all testified that Wm. A. Coffin's reputation for truth and veracity were good while that of Maud Grant was bad.

Maud Grant was recalled and on cross-examination admitted that after her trial at Deerwood she remarked

TESTIMONY IN COFFIN CASE.

Maud Grant Shown to be a Prevaricator of the First Water—Evidence Had No Weight.

The following is a gist of the testimony taken in the case of the state against W. A. Coffin at Red Wing, the jury after being out but five minutes returning a verdict of not guilty:

"Maud Grant was the state's first witness. She testified that Coffin is a constable at Deerwood, Crow Wing county, and on Sept. 7 last was bringing her to the training school at Red Wing. They arrived here at about 9 o'clock in the evening. They walked around several blocks, he asking several people whom he met where there was a good hotel, and finally wound up at the Hendel hotel. He registered and they were assigned different rooms, but adjoining each other. There was a door between the two rooms. He first locked her room and then his. After a while he came into her room and said he wanted to talk to her. She refused to talk and he returned to his own room. In a short time he came back and she again told him to go away. After a while he came into her room again. She had been reading her Bible and was just going to say her prayers. He put his arm around her and held her so that she could not move. She struggled and tried to scream but he put the sheets over her face and held so tightly that she could make no out cry. He remained in her room until morning. After breakfast they walked to the training school, arriving there about 9:30 o'clock. After setting down in one of the rooms in the school she fell asleep and later was removed to bed.

Next morning Mrs. Anna McDowell, the mother of Maud Grant, testified that she was the complaining witness in the trial which resulted in the girl being sent to the training school.

Supt. J. W. Brown testified as to the girl being received at the training school. Miss Edith Kassing, matron of family A at the school, gave similar testimony.

Miss Elizabeth Barsch, instructor of sewing at the school, testified that on Sunday morning Sept. 8, she was coming down the stairs in the girls' cottage. She could look over the transoms and there saw a man and girl standing near the table as if embracing. The girl's hands were on his shoulders. She could not see where his hands were.

Alec. Hendel testified to assigning them separate rooms on the night of Sept. 7.

The state here rested. The defendant then called Rev. A. H. Carver, J. McCarvill, H. Patterson, Ida Rathbourn, Belle Whitten, C. J. Rathbourn and Walter A. Johnson. They all testified that Wm. A. Coffin's reputation for truth and veracity were good while that of Maud Grant was bad.

Maud Grant was recalled and on cross-examination admitted that after her trial at Deerwood she remarked

DEATH FOLDS ITS MANTLE ABOUT HIM

P. M. Lagerquist's Soul Passes to the Great Beyond Sunday Morning

GLOWING EXAMPLE OF A MAN

Entire City Mourns The Death of One of its Most Respected Citizens.

Peter M. Lagerquist's soul departed forth to realms unknown at ten minutes to 2 o'clock Sunday morning, and the end marked the close of one of the most upright, useful of lives, and in the press of life he was ever calm, patient and thoughtful.

Deceased had nearly reached the three score epoch of his life, being 57 years of age, and during the space of years his had been of one tone, and there is hardly a man, woman or child that would stand out and proclaim one word against his good name. Few mendic and carry to the grave with them the record that has been borne through all these years by the late Mr. Lagerquist. He was the symbol of patience and his untiring attention to the little details in the business whirl, though at times the financial strains were almost unendurable, always meeting the little obstacles with a manliness and moral courage, at once impelled his business associate to respect and admire him. In the degree that he had attended to small matters he also was honorable in his business dealings after he had acquired some of the worldly goods. He had arrived at that stage in his business career when he could begin to enjoy life and apparently up to a short time ago was in the best of health and one might have said two weeks ago that he was good for three score and ten years.

Mr. Lagerquist was always affiliated with the best interests of the city of Brainerd. Here it was that he lived the major portion of his life; he has grown from young manhood to older age, and he laid down his earthly burdens in the midst of an honorable and respectable warfare in his career. Pity it is that more men of the stamp of the deceased are not sheltered under God's canopy; their lives to be examples of true worth, the environment with which would be a stimulus to young manhood.

Mr. Lagerquist's death resulted from cerebral hemorrhage due to a stroke of apoplexy. Dr. Reimstead stated this morning that the impression that the stroke of apoplexy which overtook Mr. Lagerquist a week ago Saturday night was the third one was a mistake. That was the first and last stroke that Mr. Lagerquist had. He has had headaches and pains before but nothing like apoplexy. The stroke that finally resulted in his death occurred at about 5:30 o'clock on Saturday evening, a week ago last Saturday night. He was at once carried to his room over the store and from that time was never able to speak, except once or twice and then he only said "yes" and "no." His right side was completely paralyzed and he was hardly able to move from the time he was taken to his room. Throughout the week he suffered untold agony, but it was hoped that a change for better might come. Instead a day or two before his death he grew worse and finally it was known that the end was very near.

Early Saturday morning the members of the family were summoned to the death chamber and momentarily the end was expected. He lingered on, however, and lived with the setting of the sun, but the spark of life was almost extinct. On through the night he breathed but faintly and as the morning hours began to pass away, death took a firmer grip and slowly the life passed away, Mr. Lagerquist dying as he had lived, peacefully and calmly.

Peter M. Lagerquist was born at Wexio, Sweden, February 13, 1844. He came to this country at the age of twenty-three years, and for a time worked in the saw mills of the state of Michigan. After that he went to South America where he was engaged in railroad construction work. He came to Brainerd in 1871 and after being here a short time started in as a clerk at the old Svea hotel. Later he formed a partnership with County Auditor A. Mahlum and W. Week and the three purchased the Svea hotel. Ultimately Mr. Week sold his interest to Messrs. Lagerquist and Mahlum. Shortly afterward the two gentlemen failed and Mr. Lagerquist lost everything he had. He then took a job with the Northern Pacific working about the depot. Here he formed an acquaintance with Conductor Flint and soon after they formed a partnership and went into the grocery business, the firm name being Flint & Lagerquist. Flint finally sold his interest to A. E. Taylor and in a short time Mr. Lagerquist sold out his interest to Mr. Taylor. This was in 1880, and he started to work for George Gardner in the grocery business. He took some land near Grand Forks about this time and while he was away at one time the store burned. Mr. Lagerquist was also in business with Mike Hagberg at one time. On returning to the city he started to work for the McMaster Grocery Company and worked there until about seven or eight years ago when he started to build the block which bears his name, on Sixth street, and the following year he started in the grocery business on his own account. Since that time he did well, building up a fine business.

He has been successful in all lines during the past five or six years and has amassed quite a fortune. His farm near Grand Forks is very valuable and he has acquired a large amount of property in this city.

In 1874 he married Miss Carrie Swanson, of this city, and to them were born two children, Jennie who died a few years ago and Arthur, who is now a resident of this city and the only child living. Deceased has two brothers living in this city, A. G. Lagerquist, clothier on Sixth street, and K. W. Lagerquist, who has been employed in the Lagerquist grocery store. Carl A. Lagerquist, a half brother lives in Sweden. He also has a half sister by the name of Mrs. Hannah Matson who lives in Canada. There is also an adopted daughter, Miss Edith.

Two sisters, Mrs. Lena Steele and Mrs. Eva Swanson, the former living in North Dakota and the latter in Wisconsin, are other immediate relatives. Mrs. Steele, of North Dakota, has been in the city during much of the time that Mr. Lagerquist was sick.

Deceased was a member of the Knights Pythias, Odd Fellows, A. O. U. W. and the North Star Lodge. He was a charter member of the Odd Fellows, Workmen and North Star lodges in this city.

Mr. Lagerquist has always been a prominent Republican and at one time was county commissioner. He was also a member of the school board for one term and during that time acted in the capacity of treasurer of the board.

Mr. Lagerquist was a member of the First Congregational church, but as the church building is undergoing repairs the arrangements are being made to have the services held in the First M. E. church. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Odd Fellows will have charge of the services at the house and will escort the remains to the church. At the church the K. P. and Workmen will have charge and at the cemetery the services will be under the auspices of the Knights Pythias.

The following active pall bearers have been selected: J. C. Congdon and N. H. Ingersoll, representing the Knights Pythias; Adam Brown and Chas. Mudge, representing the I. O. O. F.; R. P. Nelson and William Murray, representing the I. O. W.

The following will be the honorary pall bearers: Orson Beach, Con O'Brien, John Arnold, J. W. Koop, Albert Angel, M. J. Reilly.

In all probability the stores of the city will be closed during the hours of the funeral, from 1 to 5 o'clock Wednesday.

It is not known definitely how much insurance Mr. Lagerquist carried but it is thought to be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Mrs. Lagerquist, to whom deceased was very much devoted, is grief stricken over the unfortunate death, and she has the sympathy of a large number of friends in this city. Out of respect the grocery store will not be opened again until Thursday morning.

The entire city mourns and on the afternoon of the funeral due respect will be shown by the closing of at least all the grocery stores in the city.

NO SCORES ON THE LOCAL GRIDIRON

Game on Saturday Afternoon Between Little Falls and Brainerd A Tie.

FAST WORK BY BOTH TEAMS.

Although Outweighed the Locals Buck the Opponent's Line Quite Successfully.

Little Falls 0; Brainerd 0.

There was a great game of football at Swartz driving park Saturday afternoon when the teams from the Little Falls high school and Brainerd high school met in battle royal. The game resulted in a tie but for a time it looked as though Little Falls might score on a touchdown, the ball being within a foot of Brainerd's goal line at the time. The locals played like majors at this point, however, and held the Little Falls team for downs. It was an exciting moment for the locals. The crowd surged to and fro and it was all that the officials of the game could do to keep the line back.

There was a very good crowd out to see the game, the teachers in the schools of the city taking a special interest in the event. The locals have improved wonderfully in their playing and at the game Saturday showed that, while they were smaller in weight, they knew a trick or two about bucking the line. On the several lineups through the play the boys seemed to concentrate their force in such a manner as to make the Little Falls team stagger. The average weight of the home team is only 140 pounds while the Little Falls team averaged about 153 pounds. There were very few kick-offs in the game, which was a singular coincidence.

The Little Falls team is composed of a gentlemanly lot of young fellows and the rooters that came with them seemed very well pleased with the treatment they received at the hands of their Brainerd friends. Many who came Saturday visited the city for the first time and Prof. Keppel was busy showing the guests the different school buildings and they were especially pleased with the laboratories at the high school.

Not the least interesting of the day's events was the reception tendered the Little Falls young people in the evening. A musical and literary program was rendered and a very enjoyable time was spent until the 12 o'clock train pulled in.

STORY OF THE GAME.

On the tossup Little Falls got the ball and kicked off to Brainerd's sixty yard line. They made no gain. Brockway, the right half of the home team, tried to go around the left end but was tackled, after which the home team was held for downs and Little Falls got the ball. They made three gains on effective end plays but were held for downs and Brainerd again took the ball. Lowey, full back for the home team, after the ball was secured, made a line buck which resulted in a three yard gain. Krentz, left half back, got the ball and made a run around the right end for four yards. Brockway, the right half of the home team, made a grand stand run around the left end and was not tackled until he had made fifteen yards, and a series of line bucks resulted in a gain of ten yards. The ball was then lost to Little Falls on a fumble. After a series of line bucks and end plays Little Falls made considerable gain, but lost the ball to Brainerd on downs. The ball was then carried to about the Little Falls thirty yard line and time for the first half was called. Score 0-0.

In the second half, Lowey, for Brainerd, kicked off to the Little Falls thirty yard line. The Little Falls quarter back got the ball and they made a gain of about fifteen yards, when he was tackled by Brainerd's quarter back, E. Boyle. On an end play Little Falls made another gain of about ten yards after which they were held for downs the ball going to Brainerd. Brainerd then played their right half around the left end and made a gain of about four yards. Another gain by a line buck finished the gain and in the next line up the home team was held for downs. Little Falls then tried an end play but it was blocked, but they repeated the performance twice and made about a ten yard gain. Brainerd then got a ten yard penalty on a foul tackle which brought the ball to the Brainerd five yard line.

The crowd went wild at this point the ball being within the five yard line and the Little Falls men playing like tigers on line bucks. They were held for downs but on the fourth down the ball was within a foot of Brainerd goal and excitement was intense. Brainerd then had the ball and with a line buck carried it back four yards. Lowey, the full back, then carried the ball out two yards. On the next down a series of end runs brought the ball to the fifteen yard line where time was called. Score 0-0.

The Minneapolis Central High eleven defeated the Duluth high school team in a game Saturday afternoon by a score of 12 to 0. It was one of the largest crowds ever assembled in Duluth to witness a foot ball game.

The University of Minnesota won the game Saturday afternoon over the Iowa University by a score of 16 to 0. Regarding E. Rogers, who is well known in this city now a member of the university team at Minneapolis, the Times says:

Individually, Rogers, La Fans and Fee were the stars for Minnesota. Rogers' tackling was perfect. Not a yard was gained outside his end, and besides protecting his own point of the line he supported his tackle in magnificent style.

His line plunges were rarely stopped without a gain, and at critical points he was the surest man on the Minnesota team to make his distance. Fee not only held firm his own side of the line, but backed up Schacht on the right.

At Northfield Saturday Hamline won over the Carleton college team, score 5 to 0.

The Morris high school football team went to Ortonville Saturday and defeated them by a score of 11 to 5. This is their second victory this season.

The Luverne high school football team defeated the Valley Springs high school football team at Luverne Saturday afternoon by a score of 20 to 0.

The Fargo Congregational college defeated the Valley City normal Saturday afternoon, 6 to 5. Neither side scored in the first half. The normals were heavy, but lacked knowledge of the game.

Aitkin won the best game of football ever played on the Aitkin gridiron from St. Cloud Saturday. Score, 6 to 5.

CHESSMAN-ELLIOTT.

A Young Lady Well Known in this City is United in Marriage at Newcastle, N. B.

The following taken from the Union Advocate, of Newcastle, N. B. gives an account of the marriage of a young lady well known in this city, a sister of Mrs. J. C. Smallwood, whom she visited for sometime:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elliott was the scene of a very pretty event on Wednesday evening the 16th inst. when their daughter Ethel M. Elliott was united in marriage to Mr. Fred V. Chessman, of Chatham.

The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Aitken in the presence of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride looked beautiful, attired in a dress of white silk organdie trimmed with embroidered chiffon and silk applique and bridal veil fastened with rose-buds. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations and was attended by her little niece Miss Hazel Crabbe, who very prettily performed the duties of maid of honor. The groom was unsupported.

AMUSEMENTS.

The story of the play "The Wrong Mr. Wright" is briefly told as follows: A multi-millionaire, one Seymour Sites of San Francisco, who in seeking a defaulting clerk, visits a seaside resort to capture him himself. He assumes the name of Wright, and comes across a female detective engaged in his own case. The lady is attracted to him by his name, which is the same as that assumed by the defaulter. He is attracted to her by her good looks, and a delightfully merry game of cross purposes ensues. He becomes a spendthrift in bouquets and other offerings—this cunning woman playing like an angler with a fly. The complications are thickened by his niece, an heiress, who to find a man who is not tempted by her money, changes positions with her maid, and succeeds in attracting the attentions of a young officer. When the time comes for the female detective to denounce the defaulter, she finds herself in love with him, and vainly tries to induce him to fly. In the hands of the police Mr. Sites has the greatest difficulty to prove his identity, so closely has he woven the net of deception around him, and it is only when intelligence comes that the real thief has been taken in New York that the lady detective confesses her failure, and the infatuated Sites offers himself as her prisoner for life. This exceedingly funny show will be at the Gardner hall on Thursday evening Oct. 31. All wishing to enjoy a hearty laugh should see Beresford.

Instead a day or two before his death he grew worse and finally it was known that the end was very near.

Early Saturday morning the members of the family were summoned to the death chamber and momentarily the end was expected. He lingered on, however, and lived with the setting of the sun, but the spark of life was almost extinct. On through the night he breathed but faintly and as the morning hours began to pass away, death took a firmer grip and slowly the life passed away. Mr. Lagerquist dying as he had lived, peacefully and calmly.

Peter M. Lagerquist was born at Wexio, Sweden, February 13, 1844. He came to this country at the age of twenty-three years, and for a time worked in the saw mills of the state of Michigan. After that he went to South America where he was engaged in railroad construction work. He came to Brainerd in 1871 and after being here a short time started in as a clerk at the old Svea hotel. Later he formed a partnership with County Auditor A. Mahlum and W. Week and the three purchased the Svea hotel. Ultimately Mr. Week sold his interest to Messrs. Lagerquist and Mahlum. Shortly afterward the two gentlemen failed and Mr. Lagerquist lost everything he had. He then took a job with the Northern Pacific working about the depot. Here he formed an acquaintance with Conductor Flint and soon after they formed a partnership and went into the grocery business, the firm name being Flint & Lagerquist. Flint finally sold his interest to A. E. Taylor and in a short time Mr. Lagerquist sold out his interest to Mr. Taylor. This was in 1880, and he started to work for George Gardner in the grocery business. He took some land near Grand Forks about this time and while he was away at one time the store burned. Mr. Lagerquist was also in business with Mike Hagberg at one time. On returning to the city he started to work for the McMaster Grocery Company and worked there until about seven or eight years ago when he started to build the block which bears his name, on Sixth street, and the following year he started in the grocery business on his own account. Since that time he did well, building up a fine business.

He has been successful in all lines during the past five or six years and has amassed quite a fortune. His farm near Grand Forks is very valuable and he has acquired a large amount of property in this city.

In 1874 he married Miss Carrie Swanson, of this city, and to them were born two children, Jennie who died a few years ago and Arthur, who is now a resident of this city and the only child living. Deceased has two brothers living in this city, A. G. Lagerquist, clothier on Sixth street, and K. W. Lagerquist, who has been employed in the Lagerquist grocery store. Carl A. Lagerquist, a half brother lives in Sweden. He also has a half sister by the name of Mrs. Hannah Matson who lives in Canada. There is also an adopted daughter, Miss Edith.

Two sisters, Mrs. Lena Steele and Mrs. Eva Swanson, the former living in North Dakota and the latter in Wisconsin, are other immediate relatives. Mrs. Steele, of North Dakota, has been in the city during much of the time that Mr. Lagerquist was sick.

Deceased was a member of the Knights Pythias, Odd Fellows, A. O. U. W. and the North Star Lodge. He was a charter member of the Odd Fellows, Workmen and North Star lodges in this city.

Mr. Lagerquist has always been a prominent Republican and at one time was county commissioner. He was also a member of the school board for one term and during that time acted in the capacity of treasurer of the board.

Mr. Lagerquist was a member of the First Congregational church, but as the church building is undergoing repairs the arrangements are being made to have the services held in the First M. E. church. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Odd Fellows will have charge of the services at the house and will escort the remains to the church. At the church the K. P. and Workmen will have charge and at the cemetery the services will be under the auspices of the Knights Pythias.

The following active pall bearers have been selected: J. C. Congdon and N. H. Ingersoll, representing the Knights Pythias; Adam Brown and Chas. Mudge, representing the I. O. O. F.; R. P. Nelson and William Murray, representing the I. O. W.

The following will be the honorary pall bearers: Orson Beach, Con O'Brien, John Arnold, J. W. Koop, Albert Angel, M. J. Reilly.

In all probability the stores of the city will be closed during the hours of the funeral, from 1 to 5 o'clock Wednesday.

It is not known definitely how much insurance Mr. Lagerquist carried but it is thought to be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Mrs. Lagerquist, to whom deceased was very much devoted, is grief stricken over the unfortunate death, and she has the sympathy of a large number of friends in this city. Out of respect the grocery store will not be opened again until Thursday morning.

The entire city mourns and on the afternoon of the funeral due respect will be shown by the closing of at least all the grocery stores in the city.

Game on Saturday Afternoon Between Little Falls and Brainerd A Tie.

FAST WORK BY BOTH TEAMS.

Although Outweighed the Locals Buck the Opponent's Line Quite Successfully.

Little Falls 0; Brainerd 0.

There was a great game of football at Swartz driving park Saturday afternoon when the teams from the Little Falls high school and Brainerd high school met in battle royal. The game resulted in a tie but for a time it looked as though Little Falls might score on a touchdown, the ball being within a foot of Brainerd's goal line at the time. The locals played like majors at this point, however, and held the Little Falls team for downs. It was an exciting moment for the locals. The crowd surged to and fro and it was all that the officials of the game could do to keep the line back.

There was a very good crowd out to see the game, the teachers in the schools of the city taking a special interest in the event. The locals have improved wonderfully in their playing and at the game Saturday showed that, while they were smaller in weight, they knew a trick or two about bucking the line. On the several lineups through the play the boys seemed to concentrate their force in such a manner as to make the Little Falls team stagger. The average weight of the home team is only 140 pounds while the Little Falls team averaged about 153 pounds. There were very few kick-offs in the game, which was a singular coincidence.

The Little Falls team is composed of a gentlemanly lot of young fellows and the rooters that came with them seemed very well pleased with the treatment they received at the hands of their Brainerd friends. Many who came Saturday visited the city for the first time and Prof. Keppel was busy showing the guests the different school buildings and they were especially pleased with the laboratories at the high school.

Not the least interesting of the day's events was the reception tendered the Little Falls young people in the evening. A musical and literary program was rendered and a very enjoyable time was spent until the 12 o'clock train pulled in.

STORY OF THE GAME.

On the tossup Little Falls got the ball and kicked off to Brainerd's sixty yard line. They made no gain. Brockway, the right half of the home team, tried to go around the left end but was tackled, after which the home team was held for downs and Little Falls got the ball. They made three gains on effective end plays but were held for downs and Brainerd again took the ball. Lowey, full back for the home team, after the ball was secured, made a line buck which resulted in a three yard gain. Kretz, left half back, got the ball and made a run around the right end for four yards. Brockway, the right half of the home team, made a grand stand run around the left end and was not tackled until he had made fifteen yards, and a series of line bucks resulted in a gain of ten yards. The ball was then lost to Little Falls on a fumble. After a series of line bucks and end plays Little Falls made considerable gain, but lost the ball to Brainerd on downs. The ball was then carried to about the Little Falls thirty yard line and time for the first half was called. Score 0-0.

In the second half, Lowey, for Brainerd, kicked off to the Little Falls thirty yard line. The Little Falls quarter back got the ball and they made a gain of about fifteen yards, when he was tackled by Brainerd's quarter back, E. Boyle. On an end play Little Falls made another gain of about ten yards after which they were held for downs the ball going to Brainerd. Brainerd then played their right half around the left end and made a gain of about four yards. Another gain by a line buck finished the gain and in the next line up the home team was held for downs. Little Falls then tried an end play but it was blocked, but they repeated the performance twice and made about a ten yard gain. Brainerd then got a ten yard penalty on a foul tackle which brought the ball to the Brainerd five yard line.

The crowd went wild at this point the ball being within the five yard line and the Little Falls men playing like tigers on line bucks. They were held for downs but on the fourth down the ball was within a foot of Brainerd goal and excitement was intense. Brainerd then had the ball and with a line buck carried it back four yards. Lowey, the full back, then carried the ball out two yards. On the next down a series of end runs brought the ball to the fifteen yard line where time was called. Score 0-0.

The Minneapolis Central High eleven defeated the Duluth high school team in a game Saturday afternoon by a score of 12 to 0. It was one of the largest crowds ever assembled in Duluth to witness a foot ball game.

The University of Minnesota won the game Saturday afternoon over the Iowa University by a score of 16 to 0. Regarding E. Rogers, who is well known in this city now a member of the university team at Minneapolis, the Times says:

Individually, Rogers, La Faus and Fee were the stars for Minnesota. Rogers' tackling was perfect. Not a yard was gained outside his end, and besides protecting his own point of the line he supported his tackle in magnificent style.

His line plunges were rarely stopped without a gain, and at critical points he was the surest man on the Minnesota team to make his distance. Fee not only held firm his own side of the line, but backed up Schacht on the right.

At Northfield Saturday Hamline won over the Carleton college team, score 5 to 0.

The Morris high school football team went to Ortonville Saturday and defeated them by a score of 11 to 5. This is their second victory this season.

The Luverne high school football team defeated the Valley Springs high school football team at Luverne Saturday afternoon by a score of 20 to 0.

The Fargo Congregational college defeated the Valley City normal Saturday afternoon, 6 to 5. Neither side scored in the first half. The normals were heavy, but lacked knowledge of the game.

Aitkin won the best game of football ever played on the Aitkin gridiron from St. Cloud Saturday. Score, 6 to 5.

CHESSMAN-ELLIOTT.

A Young Lady Well Known in this City is United in Marriage at New-castle, N. B.

The following taken from the Union Advocate, of Newcastle, N. B. gives an account of the marriage of a young lady well known in this city, a sister of Mrs. J. C. Smallwood, whom she visited for sometime:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elliot was the scene of a very pretty event on Wednesday evening the 16th inst. when their daughter Ethel M. Elliot was united in marriage to Mr. Fred V. Chessman, of Chatham.

The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Aitken in the presence of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride looked beautiful, attired in a dress of white silk organdie trimmed with embroidered chiffon and silk applique and bridal veil fastened with rose-buds. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations and was attended by her little niece Miss Hazel Crabbe, who very prettily performed the duties of maid of honor. The groom was unsupported.

AMUSEMENTS.

The story of the play "The Wrong Mr. Wright" is briefly told as follows: A multi-millionaire, one Seymour Sites of San Francisco, who in seeking a defaulting clerk, visits a seaside resort to capture him himself.

He assumes the name of Wright, and comes across a female detective engaged in his own case. The lady is attracted to him by his name, which is the same as that assumed by the defaulter. He is attracted to her by her good looks, and a delightfully merry game of cross purposes ensues. He becomes a spendthrift in bouquets and other offerings—this cunning woman playing like an angler with a fly. The complications are thickened by his niece, an heiress, who to find a man who is not tempted by her money, changes positions with her maid, and succeeds in attracting the attentions of a young officer. When the time comes for the female detective to denounce the defaulter, she finds herself in love with him, and vainly tries to induce him to fly. In the hands of the police Mr. Sites has the greatest difficulty to prove his identity, so closely has he woven the net of deception around him, and it is only when intelligence comes that the real thief has been taken in New York that the lady detective confesses her failure, and the infatuated Sites offers himself as her prisoner for life. This exceedingly funny show will be at the Gardner hall on Thursday evening Oct. 31. All wishing to enjoy a hearty laugh should see Beresford.

MADE GOOD HIS ESCAPE

DETECTIVES HAVE A THRILLING
CHASE AFTER A DISPERADO
AT NASHVILLE.

IS WANTED IN MONTANA

Believed to Be One of the Men Who Held Up the Great Northern Express Near Wagner, Mon.—Utilizes a Double Team, a Horse and Buggy and a Riding Horse in Getting Away. Attempted to Change a Bill.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 28.—A desperate man fought his way clear of two city detectives here, and, after a thrilling chase, escaped. In his race for liberty he utilized a two-horse wagon team, a horse and buggy and a riding horse, all forcibly taken, while two dead bloodhounds mark the first portion of his trail.

Officers believe the man is one of the gang that held up the Great Northern express near Wagner, Mon., last June, his attempt to get change for a $20 bill of the series secured in that robbery attracting the attention of the police to him.

At 10:30 a. m. a rawboned man about 5 feet 10 inches high, with florid complexion, offered the bill in payment of a small purchase made at a store on the public square. Difficulty in making the change caused the salesman to closely notice the bill, which proved to be on the Montana bank to which the stolen bills were consigned. The police were quietly notified, the clerk meanwhile delaying the matter of change.

Detectives Dwyer and Dickens were soon on hand, and, approaching the man, demanded his name.

"Ferguson," was the reply, and after another question or two, Detective Dwyer informed the man he was under arrest. Quick as a flash Ferguson had a revolver in each hand and started for the door.

A hand to hand fight followed, both officers grappling with the stranger, who proved

More Than a Match for Them

Using his pistols as clubs he fought his way to the door and fled down the street.

A passing ice wagon caught his attention and the three negro occupants were soon out of his way. Then, at a terrific pace, the wagon was headed across the Cumberland river bridge into East Nashville, a fusillade of shots following it.

Out Woodland street went the flying team, but a sudden turn into First street soon brought it to grief. One of the horses fell and broke his leg, but the fugitive was not to be delayed. Running across First street he held up an old negro who was driving by in a buggy and the flight was continued.

Out into the commons he sped. Once the buggy overturned, but was quickly righted. Finally the tired horse was abandoned and after a dive into Shelby park on foot the supposed bandit secured another horse, hitched at a point near the park. Then after a sensational ride the horse was left and the flight was continued on foot. Further out the pursuers found two of the bloodhounds used in the chase shot to death, a short distance apart, and after that the trace of the man was lost.

The sheriff with a large posse is out scouring the country for the missing man. When the buggy was abandoned the man threw away a wallet containing $1,030 in $10 and $20 bills of the Montana bank.

DELAY CAUSES COMMENT.

No Word From Rome Concerning Sioux City Diocese.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Some interest has been occasioned here by the delay of the Catholic church authorities at Rome in appointing the bishop to take charge of the new Sioux City diocese, which is to be created out of the old Dubuque diocese of the church. The preliminary steps were taken early last winter and Cardinal Martinelli about last March forwarded to the pope the necessary three names constituting his recommendations for the appointment. No word has come from Rome since then about the matter. Ordinarily the appointment would have been announced some months ago and it is surmised the delay is due to papers forwarded to Rome opposing certain of the candidates or objecting to the division of the diocese, although this is mere conjecture.

MURDERED WIFE AND HIMSELF.

Angered Because Denied a Sight of His Children.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Because he was denied the sight of his two little children James Kennedy, a laborer, murdered his wife and killed himself. The couple were married 12 years ago, but quarreled recently and separated. Kennedy called on his wife and asked to see the children. Fearing that he meant to take them away from her she told him they had gone to church. In a few minutes, however, when they heard their father's voice they came running from a bedroom, where they had been hidden by their mother. This enraged Kennedy, and, pulling out a revolver, he fired three shots at his wife, killing her. He then turned the revolver on himself and when found a few minutes later was dead.

Football Player's Neck Broken.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—John Sigrist, center rush of the Ohio State university football team, is at one of the city hospitals with a broken neck. Sigrist was injured in the game Saturday with Western Reserve. An X-ray examination showed the third cervical vertebrae was fractured. An operation will be performed, but there is little hope that it will avail. Sigrist's body is paralyzed from the shoulders down.

ROOSEVELT'S MANNER.

President's Way of Meeting Opportunities of Office-seekers.

TALKS FRANKLY AND OUT LOUD.

Though Good Natured and Cordial, He Does Not Attempt to Conceal That He Is Bored by Persistent Applicants For Patronage—No Time For Long Speeches.

Theodore Roosevelt has been president of the United States long enough to have made a distinct impression on the public men who make up what is vaguely termed Washington sentiment, writes the Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post. The question on everybody's lips is, "What kind of a president is Roosevelt going to make?" Enough persons have been to see him, from senators and other party leaders down to the most trivial callers, and he has said enough in response to their varied requests to furnish the data by which all interested observers may make their own predictions, according to their individual standards of political expediency and public duty.

That the presidency is an office in which a man must submit to endless importunity is the experience of every recent occupant. General Harrison told the friends who inquired concerning his willingness to be a candidate in 1896 that he should dread to have to go through again the terrible ordeal of grappling entanglements and listening to the appeals for patronage. President Cleveland in his second term issued a notice to the effect that he would not receive importunities for office, but that all the preliminary discussion must be had with the cabinet officers in whose departments the positions respectively came. President McKinley, as was often noted, possessed an almost magical faculty for "passing people along" and yet doing it graciously. Still the office wore heavily on him and left his constitution somewhat weakened.

President Roosevelt, it is acknowledged, has not yet acquired the McKinley art of taking these troubles easily. While perfectly good natured and cordial to all his visitors, he bears quiet evidence of being frightfully bored by the office brokers and tells those who come to see him on matters of public policy how glad he is to have the patronage harangue occasionally interrupted. Of course everything that a president says to his callers is repeated to somebody and tends to travel rapidly. When he tells the bearer of a statesmanlike message that he welcomes such an oasis, the virtuous man loses no time in letting it get around to the place hunters that their visits are less welcomed than his own. Already there is some feeling among the politicians that they are suffering a slight when their errands relate to office. Some of the president's jocular remarks at such times have been quoted afterward as coming a little too near the truth to be wholly enjoyed. Two senators were pressing him closely in regard to patronage the other day and thought they had about made their point when the president, with a wave of the hand, invited into the conversation a third man, before whom they could not talk, saying in a jesting way that he wanted to get a little respite from their importunities. His humor for some reason they did not wholly like, and they went away questioning whether he would be a real success as president.

Another thing with which the politicians find fault is that Mr. Roosevelt talks too loud and does not give them much opportunity for privacy. He receives a great many callers in his large room at one time, listening to them in groups or one by one as they get around him. In this sort of conference much that he says can be overheard by the others present. There is also a disposition in some quarters to resent the notion that the president should himself personally ascertain the fitness of candidates presented for places by the senators. These dignitaries maintain that no president can do this without reducing greatly the time at his disposal for listening to further appeals.

The president's callers, however, while saying that he lacks something of Mr. McKinley's skill in handling people expeditiously and smoothly, acknowledge that he possesses a wonderful faculty of knowing in advance what they are going to say. He has always been noted for this. His mind habitually leaps ahead of the conversation, and those who start out on a subject with platitudes and preliminaries are suddenly interrupted by some pregnant remark containing the gist of the whole matter. An important visitor the other day, known to be long winded and painfully precise in his presentation of a case, was coached by his advisers beforehand as to the necessity of bringing his remarks within small compass. He wanted twenty minutes, but his advisers told him that he had better get his story into ten, as that would be as long an audience as he could expect. Reluctantly he composed a ten minute speech and went to the White House, where, although having a very successful interview, he did not get a chance to talk ninety seconds. The president, as soon as the presentation began, gave one of his logical leaps ahead, showing that he comprehended the whole subject and with a question or two reached the visitor's exact point of view. Mr. Roosevelt in doing this shows that he is a well informed man, with an alert mentality. This greatly lessens the task of listening to what everybody has to say, because he does not need to hear so much.

CASTRO'S FORCES ROUTED.

All of Eastern Venezuela Reported to Be Under Arms.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Oct. 28.—The revolutionary junta here announces that a dispatch has been received about a battle at Maturin with President Castro's forces. The latter, it is said, were routed after six hours of fighting. There were great losses on both sides. The government troops withdrew and left the insurgents in possession. Many of the government leaders were captured and also a large amount of supplies and ammunition. Senor Munoz Tebar, the local representative of the revolutionists, adds that this means that all of Eastern Venezuela is under arms.

MADE GOOD HIS ESCAPE

DETECTIVES HAVE A THRILLING CHASE AFTER A DISPERADO AT NASHVILLE.

IS WANTED IN MONTANA

Believed to Be One of the Men Who Held Up the Great Northern Express Near Wagner, Mon.—Utilizes a Double Team, a Horse and Buggy and a Riding Horse in Getting Away. Attempted to Change a Bill.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 28.—A desperate man fought his way clear of two city detectives here, and, after a thrilling chase, escaped. In his race for liberty he utilized a two-horse wagon team, a horse and buggy and a riding horse, all forcibly taken, while two dead bloodhounds mark the first portion of his trail.

Officers believe the man is one of the gang that held up the Great Northern express near Wagner, Mon., last June, his attempt to get change for a $20 bill of the series secured in that robbery attracting the attention of the police to him.

At 10:30 a. m. a rawboned man about 5 feet 10 inches high, with florid complexion, offered the bill in payment of a small purchase made at a store on the public square. Difficulty in making the change caused the salesman to closely notice the bill, which proved to be on the Montana bank to which the stolen bills were consigned. The police were quietly notified, the clerk meanwhile delaying the matter of change.

Detectives Dwyer and Dickens were soon on hand, and, approaching the man, demanded his name.

"Ferguson," was the reply, and after another question or two Detective Dwyer informed the man he was under arrest. Quick as a flash Ferguson had a revolver in each hand and started for the door.

A hand to hand fight followed, both officers grappling with the stranger, who proved

More Than a Match for Them

Using his pistols as clubs he fought his way to the door and fled down the street.

A passing ice wagon caught his attention and the three negro occupants were soon out of his way. Then, at a terrific pace, the wagon was headed across the Cumberland river bridge into East Nashville, a fusillade of shots following it.

Out Woodland street went the flying team, but a sudden turn into First street soon brought it to grief. One of the horses fell and broke his leg, but the fugitive was not to be delayed. Running across First street he held up an old negro who was driving by in a buggy and the flight was continued.

Out into the commons he sped, Once the buggy overturned, but was quickly righted. Finally the tired horse was abandoned and after a dive into Shelby park on foot the supposed bandit secured another horse, latched at a point near the park. Then after a sensational ride the horse was left and the flight was continued on foot. Further out the pursuers found two of the bloodhounds used in the chase shot to death, a short distance apart, and after that the trace of the man was lost.

The sheriff with a large posse is out scouring the country for the missing man. When the buggy was abandoned the man threw away a wallet containing $1,000 in $10 and $20 bills of the Montana bank.

DELAY CAUSES COMMENT.

No Word From Rome Concerning Sioux City Diocese.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Some interest has been occasioned here by the delay of the Catholic church authorities at Rome in appointing the bishop to take charge of the new Sioux City diocese, which is to be created out of the old Dubuque diocese of the church. The preliminary steps were taken early last winter and Cardinal Martinelli about last March forwarded to the pope the necessary three names constituting his recommendations for the appointment. No word has come from Rome since then about the matter. Ordinarily the appointment would have been announced some months ago and it is surmised the delay is due to papers forwarded to Rome opposing certain of the candidates or objecting to the division of the diocese, although this is mere conjecture.

MURDERED WIFE AND HIMSELF.

Angered Because Denied a Sight of His Children.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Because he was denied the sight of his two little children James Kennedy, a laborer, murdered his wife and killed himself. The couple were married 12 years ago, but quarreled recently and separated. Kennedy called on his wife and asked to see the children. Fearing that he meant to take them away from her she told him they had gone to church. In a few minutes, however, when they heard their father's voice they came running from a bedroom, where they had been hidden by their mother. This enraged Kennedy, and, pulling out a revolver, he fired three shots at his wife, killing her. He then turned the revolver on himself and when found a few minutes later was dead.

Football Player's Neck Broken.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—John Sigrist, center rush of the Ohio State university football team, is at one of the city hospitals with a broken neck. Sigrist was injured in the game Saturday with Western Reserve. An X-ray examination showed the third cervical vertebrae was fractured. An operation will be performed, but there is little hope that it will avail. Sigrist's body is paralyzed from the shoulders down.

ROOSEVELT'S MANNER.

President's Way of Meeting Importunities of Office-seekers.

TALKS FRANKLY AND OUT LOUD.

Though Good Natured and Cordial, He Does Not Attempt to Conceal That He Is Bored by Persistent Applicants For Patronage—No Time For Long Speeches.

Theodore Roosevelt has been president of the United States long enough to have made a distinct impression on the public men who make up what is vaguely termed Washington sentiment, writes the Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post. The question on everybody's lips is, "What kind of a president is Roosevelt going to make?" Enough persons have been to see him, from senators and other party leaders down to the most trivial callers, and he has said enough in response to their varied requests to furnish the data by which all interested observers may make their own predictions, according to their individual standards of political expediency and public duty.

That the presidency is an office in which a man must submit to endless importunity is the experience of every recent occupant. General Harrison told the friends who inquired concerning his willingness to be a candidate in 1896 that he should dread to have to go through again the terrible ordeal of grappling entanglements and listening to the appeals for patronage. President Cleveland in his second term issued a notice to the effect that he would not receive importunities for office, but that all the preliminary discussion must be had with the cabinet officers in whose departments the positions respectively came. President McKinley, as was often noted, possessed an almost magical faculty for "passing people along" and yet doing it graciously. Still the office wore heavily on him and left his constitution somewhat weakened.

President Roosevelt, it is acknowledged, has not yet acquired the McKinley art of taking these troubles easily. While perfectly good natured and cordial to all his visitors, he bears quiet evidence of being frightfully bored by the office brokers and tells those who come to see him on matters of public policy how glad he is to have the patronage barangue occasionally interrupted. Of course everything that a president says to his callers is repeated to somebody and tends to travel rapidly. When he tells the bearer of a statesmanlike message that he welcomes such an oasis, the virtuous man loses no time in letting it get around to the place, hunters that their visits are less welcomed than his own. Already there is some feeling among the politicians that they are suffering a slight when their errands relate to office. Some of the president's jocular remarks at such times have been quoted afterward as coming a little too near the truth to be wholly enjoyed. Two senators were pressing him closely in regard to patronage the other day and thought they had about made their point when the president, with a wave of the hand, invited into the conversation a third man, before whom they could not talk, saying in a jesting way that he wanted to get a little respite from their importunities. His humor for some reason they did not wholly like, and they went away questioning whether he would be a real success as president.

Another thing with which the politicians find fault is that Mr. Roosevelt talks too loud and does not give them much opportunity for privacy. He receives a great many callers in his large room at one time, listening to them in groups or one by one as they get around him. In this sort of conference much that he says can be overheard by the others present. There is also a disposition in some quarters to resent the notion that the president should himself personally ascertain the fitness of candidates presented for places by the senators. These dignitaries maintain that no president can do this without reducing greatly the time at his disposal for—listening to further appeals.

The president's callers, however, while saying that he lacks something of Mr. McKinley's skill in handling people expeditiously and smoothly, acknowledge that he possesses a wonderful faculty of knowing in advance what they are going to say. He has always been noted for this. His mind habitually leaps ahead of the conversation, and those who start out on a subject with platitudes and preliminaries are suddenly interrupted by some pregnant remark containing the gist of the whole matter. An important visitor the other day, known to be long winded and painfully precise in his presentation of a case, was coached by his advisers beforehand as to the necessity of bringing his remarks within small compass. He wanted twenty minutes, but his advisers told him that he had better get his story into ten, as that would be as long an audience as he could expect. Reluctantly he composed a ten minute speech and went to the White House, where, although having a very successful interview, he did not get a chance to talk ninety seconds. The president, as soon as the presentation began, gave one of his logical leaps ahead, showing that he comprehended the whole subject and with a question or two reached the visitor's exact point of view. Mr. Roosevelt in doing this shows that he is a well informed man, with an alert mentality. This greatly lessens the task of listening to what everybody has to say, because he does not need to hear so much.

CASTRO'S FORCES ROUTED.

All of Eastern Venezuela Reported to Be Under Arms.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Oct. 28.—The revolutionary junta here announces that a dispatch has been received about a battle at Maturin with President Castro's forces. The latter, it is said, were routed after six hours of fighting. There were great losses on both sides. The government troops withdrew and left the insurgents in possession. Many of the government leaders were captured and also a large amount of supplies and ammunition. Senor Munoz Tebar, the local representative of the revolutionists, adds that this means that all of Eastern Venezuela is under arms.

A Year's Pension Cases.
